$6,000
AWARD

BILL FREDING MEMORIAL ENTRANCE AWARD

Application on back

One $5,000 award will be awarded annually to a first year student in the Applied Sustainable Ranching program in memory of Bill Freding, a pioneer in the agriculture industry with a passion for lifelong learning and giving back to the community and industry he loved. The successful recipient will also receive a further $1,000 award from Doug Haughton, also in memory of Bill.

Bill Freding had a deep understanding and commitment to the BC beef industry and was always there to lend a hand, provide insight or attend an event. Bill was a strong supporter of developing the local markets and was on the front line when it came to trying new ideas. Bill was very patient and passionate about teaching newcomers to the industry. He was an instigator of fun, learning and innovation.

Applicants must:

- Be a student enrolled in the Applied Sustainable Ranching program at Thompson Rivers University—Williams Lake Campus
- Submit an essay of three to five pages that answer the following questions:
 - What has the agricultural industry given you?
 - What can you do to help support the positive face of agriculture in today's society?
 - What do you see as the most effective means to educate consumers about the beef industry?
 - How are you planning to use the knowledge you gain from the Applied Sustainable Ranching program?
- Students who have received other TRU general entrance scholarships are not eligible for this award.
